Expectations and Pledge of Commitment

- 1) Consistent attendance to Sunday morning services, Faith Kids services and Faith Kids events.
- 2) Children's leaders need to be present and ready to go 15 minutes prior to scheduled services (this may vary with events and special services).
- 3) Commitment to praying for the kids and the ministry of Faith Family Church.
- 4) All leaders must be presentable for ministry to kids. You must be modest in clothing (Cover the 4 B'S - breasts, butt, back and belly) and you must maintain good hygiene.
- 5) As a leader you need to engage in conversation and be proactive in building relationships with the kids and your fellow leaders.
- 6) In dealing with adolescents you are required to share any information that would come to you that has the potential of causing harm to others or the individual. This information must be shared with the Faith Kids Director and is expected to be kept in confidence outside of the leadership of Faith Family Church.

- 7) Interaction with a child of the opposite sex must never be in a secluded place. In the event that you find yourself praying for or giving spiritual direction, you must call for another leader to assist.

*I have read the mission statement and understand the expectations of Faith Family Church Children's Ministry and will faithfully serve to the best of my ability. I will work towards improving myself and becoming a better servant for the Kingdom of God. I will be in fellowship with God and so do all things with a spirit of love and meekness for the glorification of God and the betterment and equipping of the body of Christ. I understand and believe in the Doctrinal Statement of Faith Family Church. I believe in the vision that has been set forth by Faith Family Church.
